Living life is a dream when you're in your teens Or so I'm told now Every step that you take remains so unseen

When this boy meets world Boy meets world When this boy meets world Boy meets world

I'll meet you down at the bus stop after school Well, don't be late now I never thought I would find someone who is so cool You know it's--it's gotta be you

When this boy meets world Boy meets world When this boy meets world Boy meets world

Well, there's so much to think about You're the one thing That I can't live without

Running down this road we call life
Is what we're doing
It's good to know I have friends who will always
Stand by me
You know I'll--I'll stand by you

When this boy meets world
Boy meets world
When this boy meets world
When this boy meets world
Boy meets world
When this boy meets world
Boy meets world
Boy meets world

When this boy meets world Boy meets world When this boy meets world Boy meets world
