

My Darling You! "I'm Sitting Here"

Visit "I'm Sitting Here" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm sitting here
and waiting for you to come home to me and show me what you are I can think of a million things to say But I'm waiting for you to call home to me and tell me that I'm great I can think of a millions things to play

Say you love me
Say you're sorry for the things I've done
Say
Say you like having me around

I'm sitting here
wishing the day was gone and we could meet again tonight I could think of a million days to come
But I am wishing you're eyes where here Instantly
Cause I want to be seen
I can think of a million things to show

Say you love me
Say you're sorry
for the things I've done
Say
Say you like having me around Say you missed me for a while
