who will be in your bed this morning?
who will be the one
to leave you now amidst the adoring light cause it feels right?
who will be the one
to leave you as tomorrow's dawning?
and though i'm asking, please don't give specifics i'm so unterrifically honest who will hold your door this evening?
who will be the one
to steal the smile through shining candlelight cause it feels fight?
who will be the one
to leave you as tomorrow's dawning?
i'm not trying to be scientific i'm not trying to be anything at all but this chemistry just turns me turns me terribly honest honest
who will leave your bed this morning
