Walked into that empty room in your
Black dress and skinny jeans
Hot enough to make me scream
I'm watchig you across the room and you
Talking like I'm the shit
I wish you'd get over it

But girls just wanna have fun
And all this fun's got me making a run

And all the girls fall in love when they want to
And all the girls wanna drink for free
And all the girls, they do what they want to
And all the girls are the same
The same to me

Colinize my bedroom with your
Black boots and overcoat
Love notes you never wrote, nah
Search for something relevant to see
What's your coffee table reads?
Cosmo and Seventeen

But girls just wanna have fun
And all this fun's got me making a run

And all the girls fall in love when they want to
And all the girls wanna drink for free
And all the girls, they do what they want to
And all the girls are the same
The same to me

She lights a cigarette
But only _____
Her old boyfriend used to light them up
He's the only one she loved and now he fucked her up
And i know she'll never be
That in love with me

And all the girls fall in love when they want to
And all the girls wanna drink for free

And all the girls, they do what they want to
And all the girls are the same
The same to me

And all the girls fall in love when they want to
And all the girls wanna drink for free
And all the girls, they do what they want to
And all the girls are the same, oh
All the girls are the same
The same to me
