Can't breath, Can't talk
Can't make sense at all
You twitch, I watch
The barriers fall Breath my name in contempt hold my eyes in your hands
Frozen as you cry the words
I swore I never hear you talk Smile again, it never mends reach out to those who never ever cared reach out to those who run scared a lack of oxygen, break or bend weakened from the trends that rape and burn the world Burn the world, burn the world

Breathing, can't see at all
Cheating, the reason that we fall
Lying, I didn't hear the call Crying, The death of us all
Breathing, can't see at all
Lying, I didn't hear the call
Cheating, the reason that we fall
Crying, the death of us all Breathe my name in contempt
hold my eyes in your hands
Frozen as you cry the words
I swore I never ever hear you talk
Can't breath, Can't talk
Can't make sense at all
Can't make sense at all
