My one desire, My human fire, When I saw you, I bit the wire...
There's always been, More than you've seen,
Can't live without you, Even when I dream...
If you could only see, What it means to me,
To have you by my side, Makes everything so fine...
Can't you see...
I could be happy, I could be sad,
That all depends on, How much of you I've had...
Why don't you come on home, I've got something waiting... Waiting just for you...
And only you will do, oh yeah...
So this is the story, This is your clue, If you know me,
Then you know it's all about you...
Why don't you come on home now, oh the fire's blazing...
Don't you stay away...
You know it makes me crazy! Oh yeah...
My one desire, My human fire, When I saw you, I bit the wire.
