so much for you and me, so much you cant be free.
their life is circling down we fall down to the ground my life for a million dollars, your life for a fucking nickel. all eyes are bleeding red, all eyes are bleeding red. we all just stare at the sky, and wonder why we're here. all over, all over. all eyes see for you, all eyes see right though, all eyes are focused on, all eyes are waiting for their life over, all over again, ohhhhh , I can see, a nightmare begins for my uh sign is falling, to the ground. on my crown. dead dog that crawls, that crawls out to out. crawling, our night tomorrow, stupid mic arg, check, this is worse than the other one, run this shit back, fuck..
