I hadn't really expected something like this, from you I really really believed that our love, was true But I was just a trophy or something cool and new now I can't find anything good in the things you do so sick of hearing from your friends, about things i've done

And do you honestly think that i like this and thinks that its fun?
so this is your final warning, ignore it and I'll kill you on monday morning!
I'll kill you on monday morning!

I cried my heart out talked my brains out
sung my voice out
and slit my vains out you acted like a news reporter and sold my secrets for a quarter

At the first you came and took away my air but oh shit, you turned out to be a nightmare! from a sec to another, you became my biggest scare Now where are your friends, you got some brand new gossip, to share

done
its fun?
monday morning!
I'll kill you on monday morning!

I cried my heart out
sung my voice out
and slit my vains out

done
its fun?
monday morning!

I cried my heart out
sung my voice out
and slit my veins out

sung my voice out
and slit my veins out
