Words and music: j. stacy

All of my ambitions
Push me through the years
All my struggles and anticipation
Keep away my fears
Don't tell me what happened yesterday
Time and days gone by must fade away

Throw my jaded memories out the window
They only hurt me
They only bring me down, only take me down
And keep me from believing I can make it
Don't tell me what happened yesterday
Time and days gone by must fade away

If I had a thousand years to live in
All of history
Well I would never go, I would let it go
Trade it for tomorrow
I won't miss it, no way
Don't tell me what happened yesterday
Time and days gone by must fade away
Fade away
