"We Will Be Disappointed Together"

I'm waiting with my arms up high
My eyes pulled tight to lines of worry
That you won't meet me here tonight
Am I reaching enough, am I reaching at nothing
Am I reaching enough, am I reaching at all

And tonight, we will be disappointed together
Disappointed together

The sickness for your hands abounding
Like some holy disease
A perfect symphony resounding
Am I reaching enough, am I reaching at nothing
Am I reaching enough, am I reaching at all

And tonight, we will be disappointed together
Disappointed together (2x)

-Instrumental-

And tonight, we will be disappointed together
Disappointed together (4x)

And tonight, we will be disappointed together
Disappointed together
