A silent feeling gets me inside
I want but have no place to hide
The anger I know is far to much
For I know in time in such

Chorus

To get to know is to get to tell
Everything I know I will
Among them all, I feel along
More than what I do at home
I'm lost I'm alone
And I've nothing left to fear

If anyone tried to tell me
What I was missing
Nothing more than I really should
Nothing more I want I would

Chorus

In the silent time I am answered
By nothing more than my thoughts
My dreams are twisted into pleasure
In a broken home to free

Chorus (2x)
