Embrace - Velvet Revolver

I dreamt you dreamt of me, yeah
And I was on you, see
Woke up and you were gone
Woke up and saw the sun
It was shining in my face
Showing me my disgrace

Five in the afternoon
Lying in my bed
Dehydrating, dissipating
Craving to be fed
Hundred miles an hour
Thoughts are zooming by
Feel the light
Got my eyes, yeah
Are you lonesome when you're used?
Do you really think?
I think I do
Embrace myself

Sitting in the shower all alone
Grazing my heart to the bone
You came here to save me too late
Now I'm embracing my hate

Now, now I'm finally understood
Now, now I'm really sure I would
Embrace my hate
