you could say
you would say
i'm like all of these decomposing leaves dark and heavy

you'd go on and on about something you read somewhere
but you'd be wrong
just like always and i could drag myself to see your point fake concern for effect or i might just ignore it you could say you would say there are inbetweens from anything that seems ordinary when all the time that i have spent inside knocking things i haven't tried what did i expect to get from that?

keeping tricks behind my back
