Wonder Woman, I wonder why I feel alone
I try so hard to impress you but I have no superpowers of my own

I feel the forcefield from above Use your special power and keep it from crushing our love

You are a superhero and I'm just a mortal guy but don't let that come between us you know it'll make me cry

One minute you're here whispering sweet lies the next thing you're gone, rounding up bad guys again

Now that we're together I hope that it never ends I really like hanging out with you and all the other Super Friends

When things go wrong
I get upset until you take me for a ride in the invisible jet
