Something strange
Somehow I get the feeling I'm
Where everyone knows your name
It's not much different but
It's surely not the same
You'll find peace in knowing now
I'm so sick and tired of hearing myself
Believe me, I never guessed you
Had one up your sleeve-Well there I go
So smile, you've done your part
But I'm waiting for someone to say
"I can't take it anymore" yeah
"Can't take it anymore" yeah
What's so wrong with being sad?
Left alone I was stuck to go over
All the things that I've done wrong
Sure I was stuck in a hole
But now we've got a song
After all the love is gone
Where did you get off saying
It's not so lame
We've had it different
And I know we're not the same
Well there I go
