"The Losing End Of Punk"

Visit "The Losing End Of Punk" on MotoLyrics.com

That was the fad, punk's unfashionable again We're still as bad and we still enjoy playing and singing our stupid songs

Hoping to right our wrongs, we've been in the business way too long

What we got is songs, each other, time and motivation x2

To stay on and on and on, on and on and on the loosing end of punk

In '91, all our heavy metal covers were gone

In '94, Hullabaloo (our first cd) came out and we still sounded sore

In '97, we went on our fifth unpacked European tour

Now it's 2000 and no one wants us anymore [repeat chorus]
