Steam Rising up through the cracks in the curb As if this whole town was ready to blow
And the one thing I know is that I can't hold it back But tomorrow
a new sun will rise to wipe the sand off my eyes Leaving me
Earthbound
Nothing is planned Ain't it hard to understand that nothing is planned ?
Nothing is planned
The future has happened
though no one planned it We don't know where to blow
The future has happened
It's a newer present
It was up to you
It was up to Dew
On the lawn
Where my girlfriend used to sit Where she sang for me not long ago
And the one thing I know is that I can't take her back But maybe one day she'll come clean and wipe the dust
out of my dreams Leaving me
