This is for the ugly ones get up!

Chosen in discrimination left with no place
Chosen now we don't fit in their plan
Time is now to regain our pride and name
Come see the rise of the new breed
The mistaken generation arise

Chosen now coz they discriminate and left all alone to reveal our plan
Come see the rise of the new breed mistaken generation arise

They took our pride so we re-enter the game
With our fists ablazing the mistaken generation arise
Feel our flame feel us arise feel our flame feel us arise
Warm to the flame mistaken generation arise
