"Bring The Sword"

I don't know what you've been told, or even what you have lived through But what I do know is that life as a Christian, shreds on what I knew
And I lived a life, of which many only dream Every lust at my finger tips, the total Hollywood party scene

I like it, through the door, totally different, totally more Intense to the core, since I found out about the sword

Bring the Sword

I like it, and may I say, let me look and count the ways
That I might please the Lord looking into, the warlords sword
I like it, through the door, totally different, totally more Where I go, I'm never bored because I bring, bring the sword

You see my unsaved friend, if someone's to you lied
I'm telling you right now, we're on the warlords side Calling you to join our force, none will stand who defy Repent, don't be deceived, by the crowd that soon will die

I like it, through the door, totally different, totally more Intense to the core, the revealed word, the mighty
sword
That I might please the Lord looking unto, the warlords
sword

Bring the Sword

The return won't be delayed, join us or you'll be slain
You have been given this time quickly now, choose life, decide You'll like it, through the door, totally different, totally more Intense to the core, and you will have the sword
