Dylan

They say every man must need protection
And that every man must fall
But I swear I see my reflection
Somewhere so high above this wall.

I see my light come shining, from the West down to the East
Any day now, any day now, I shall be released.

Somewhere inside this lonely crowd
A man who swears he's not to blame
And every man like him, everyman like him cryin'™ now
Just crying out that he was framed.

I see my light come shining, from the West down to the East
Any day now, any day now, I shall be released.

They say everything can be replaced
And every distance is not near
Well, I remember every face
Of every man who put me here.

I see my light come shining, from the West down to the East
Any day now, any day now, I shall be released.

I see my light come shining, from the West down to the East
Any day now, any day now, I shall be released.
