All the lights go down as I crawl into the spaces
Fight tight all the screens, life tearing at the seams

Wait, I don't ever want to be here
Like punching in a dream breathing life into the nightmare

If it falls apart I will surely wake it
Bright lights turning green
This is worse than it seems
Wait, I don't ever want to be here
Like punching in a dream breathing life into the
nightmare

For get through, forget you
In the place that you're feeling lost
In the corner where this moment

And the face that you wish was a ghost

(wooooow â€¦ wooow â€¦ woooo)

Wait, I don't ever want to be here
Like punching in a dream
Breathing life into the nightmare
