I sing this song from the sky, no matter if it's heaven or hell.

I know i love that girl, but it wouldn't work that well.

I've been sitting here all alone for day after day.

I knew she would't come home ,but it's just that way.

Cause long distance relationships will kill you.

Yes, long distance relationships will kill you.

Long distance. Long distance. Long distance.

Last night I woke with a dream, and I knew it was the end.

You didn't let me cry baby or even let me bend.

I know. I know. I know.

Cause long distance relationships will kill you.

Long distance relationships will kill you.

I didn't want to let you go but baby it was wrong and right.

I didn't want to let you cry but baby stop your lie. WHOO!

I just wanted to hold you in my arms and tell you it's alright.

But I knew that'd be a long chance.

Cause long distance relationships will kill you.

Yes, long distance relationships will kill you.

Long distance relationships will kill you.

Long distance, long distance, long distance.

Long distance relationships will kill you.

Yes, long distance relationships will kill you.

Long distance relationships will kill you.

Long distance, long distance, long distance.

Long distance relationships will kill you.

Long distance relationships will kill you.

Long distance relationships will kill

youoooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooo
