I'm moving to Hollywood
I'm moving to Hollywood

I think I'm gonna move to Hollywood
Cause you know that's the place if you're gonna make it
Ten million people they're all deep in love
With themselves to get to go stepping on everyone else
Everyone looks so happy on TV
I hope that they can do the same for me

I'm moving to Hollywoodâ€¦Hollywood
I'm moving to Hollywoodâ€¦Hollywood
Everyone will bore me, Everyone will like me
I'm moving to Hollywood

I'll sell my soul and by a cell phone
With the very best plan
So that I can call everyone I know
Go out to parties and meet all the right people
An then I'll brag about how I know way more people than them
So would you like to have my business card
If you don't know me then you won't get far

I'm moving to Hollywoodâ€¦Hollywood
I'm moving to Hollywoodâ€¦Hollywood
Everyone will bore me, Everyone will like me
I'm moving to Hollywood

When you're in Hollywood, You live forever
Until you get replaced with something better

When you're in Hollywood, Your dreams become true
Canned laughter rings out as your dreams forget you

In Hollywood it's just the way it goes
And it don't matter what you do but who you know
The leeches driving in their German cars
While the nice girls test it in bars trying to become stars
Record some tracks and try to put an album out
Can't really sing but they can fix that now

I'm moving to Hollywood
I'm moving to Hollywood
Everyone will bore me
Everyone will like me
I'm moving to Hollywood

I'm moving to Hollywood
I'm moving to Hollywood
Everyone will bore me
Everyone will love me

I'm moving to Hollywood
I'm moving to Hollywood
I'm moving to Hollywood
Everyone will bore me
Everyone will love me
I'm moving to Hollywood
I'm moving to Hollywood
