My girlfriend is a plastic girl
When her head falls off, all I have to do is tick it right back on
She has perfect teeth, made in a factory
Where everything is clean
All you got to do is pick the one you want

I've got a plastic heart, I've got a plastic mind
And Styrofoam feelings so I feel fine
I'm numb and I'm frozen from a magazine
And everything's plastic for you and me
For you and me

We're happy though our life's a waste
And it's an awful place
Still we have a smile painted on our face
The toxic in it calls
We're unaware at all
We're fake and wonderful
They can build and shape you like a plastic doll

I've got a plastic heart, I've got a plastic mind
And Styrofoam feelings, so I feel fine
I'm numb and I'm frozen from a magazine
And everything's plastic for you and me
I've got a plastic soul, I've got a plastic life
And every emotion is sterilized
Synthetic perfection is a lifeless dream
And everything's plastic for you and me
For you and me

Everything is plastic now for you
Everything is plastic now for you

The real world disgusts us all so much
We paint it with a brush
Coat the world in plastic so it's nice and clean
We smile all the time, none of us are alive
Everything's dead inside
Beautiful and suffocating don't we all

I've got a plastic heart, I've got a plastic mind
And Styrofoam feelings so I feel fine
I'm numb and I'm frozen from a magazine
And everything's plastic for you and me
I've got a plastic soul, I've got a plastic life
And every emotion is sterilized
Synthetic perfection is a lifeless dream
And everything's plastic for you and me
For you and me
For you and me
For you and me
For you and me...
