I think I'm getting sick
Of all the same old shit
When I wake up tired and try to remember it
Why I'm numb again
Think of better times
What I can do if I only knew
Never wanna use my ambition
Days turn into years and I thought by now I'd be out of here
So I say

It's only temporary
A pause, it's momentary
Another lame excuse for doing nothing
It's only temporary
I'm resting, getting ready
Another lame excuse for doing nothing

A temporary me
That's all that I can be
You know I'm still doing the same dumb job
And I made these plans that I've now forgotten
Go on with your plans, I'd be a millionaire
For me, in everywhere no direction
I'm just filling in for the guy I am
I'll be back again
So I say

It's only temporary
A pause, it's momentary
Another lame excuse for doing nothing
It's only temporary
I'm resting, getting ready
Another lame excuse for doing nothing

But is it possible that I'm so different?
And now I'm moving for a new transition
I'm just not sure of me and all my energies
But it will do for now
You know I'm still doing the same dumb job
And I made these plans that I've now forgotten

Go on with your plans, I'd be a millionaire
For me, in everywhere no direction
I'm just filling in for the guy I am
I'll be back again
So I say

It's only temporary
A pause, it's momentary
Another lame excuse for doing nothing
It's only temporary
I'm resting, getting ready
Another lame excuse for doing nothing
Doing nothing

But is it possible that I'm so different?
And now I'm moving for a new transition
I'm just not sure of me and all my energies
But it will do for now
You know I'm still doing the same dumb job
And I made these plans that I've now forgotten
Go on with your plans, I'd be a millionaire
For me, in everywhere no direction
I'm just filling in for the guy I am
I'll be back again
So I say
It's only temporary
A pause, it's momentary
Another lame excuse for doing nothing
It's only temporary
I'm resting, getting ready
Another lame excuse for doing nothing
Doing nothing (It's only temporary)
Doing nothing (It's only temporary) ...
