Your uncle is a bar of soap, your cousin is a lampshade,
your best friend is a candle, and you're a fucking jew,
Your neighbours are a landfill, too bad you got away, but all the jews that didn't have rotted in the lime pits.
50 years later, you've still got an agenda for world domination, but you'd better think again, To when we had the upper hand, Der Fuhrer had control,
You kikes were in the cattle cars, then shoved into an oven...
Think of all the friends and family you lost...

Happy Hanukaust!

You claim six million, i wish it were true,
But you're a pack of lying fucking jews, A holocaust memorial is built on the land where most of your relatives are buried in the sand, In bulldozed graves to cover the pollution, too bad you weren't part of the final solution, Wearing long sleeves to cover your tattoo, will never hide the fact that you're a dirty jew,
Think of all the friends and family you lost...

Happy Hanukaust!

Light the menorah and think of the time when you sold out your neighbours for a handful of dimes, All those filthy jews...they must have been pissed,
They couldn't buy their way onto Schindler's list,
Think of all the friends and family you lost...

Happy Hanukaust!
