When I first saw you black ugly fucks
My father bought you at an auction for a hundred bucks,
He's passed on, I won you now,
So shine my shoes and drag my plow,

Wrapped in chains, just a slave,
That's all you'll be, from birth to grave.

You're a slave because you're black
You run away, we'll drag you back,
Hey Sambo, pick some corn,
Or you'll regret the day that you were born

Wrapped in chains, just a slave,
That's all you'll be, from birth to grave
