A kid from pallet town with a brand new world to see.

Don't know what's ahead, but it won't get the best of me.

There's so much to learn and battles to be won.

I've advanced so far and still there's always more to come.

Take a step and I'm on my way

I'm gonna start all over again.

I want to be a hero.

Pokemon advanced.

I'm on my way.

I want to be a hero.

Give me just one chance.

And the future will decide.

If there's a hero buried deep inside

I want to be a hero
