Hellbent

Seek him here seek him on the highway never knowing when he'll appear

All await engine's ticking over hear the roar as they sense the fear

Wheels a glint of steel and a flash of light

Screams from a streak of fire as he strikes

Hell bent hell bent for metal hell bent hell bent for metal

Black as night faster than a shadow crimson flare from a raging sun

An exhibition of sheer precision yet no one knows from where he comes

Fools self destruct cannot take that crown

Dreams crash one by one to the ground

Hell bent hell bent for metal hell bent hell bent for

There's many who tried to prove that they're faster

But they didn't last and they died as they tried

There's many who tried to prove that they're faster

But they didn't last and they died as they tried

Hell bent hell bent for metal hell bent hell bent for

Hell bent hell bent for metal hell bent hell bent for

Whoa thank you and good night
