The blood that fell is drawn by my hand
Your heart and soul lie wet on desert sand
Your empty shell is mine to take
And those who witness, let them be the ones to quake

You cannot touch me, we are the one
You cannot touch me, I am Legion

As night follows day, so your soul will drift away
We are the one you came to lay your life before
You will die so I can live
All hope for you is gone, there's nothing left to grieve

You cannot touch me, we are the one
You cannot touch me, I am Legion
You cannot touch me, we are the one
You cannot touch me for I am Legion

The glaze of my life
Is given by your hand
The glaze of my life
Is given by your hand, your hand
The glaze of my life
