Today
I hear my anger
It's screaming at you
Your words
Attack my senses
And make me scream

Looking back and forth at you
Should I, should I waste my time now?
Looking back and forth at you
Should I, should I pay no mind now?

Today
Inside my eyes I'm clinching my fists
My hate
Burns inside of me
Inhuman thoughts cloud my mind
What did I ever do to deserve this from you?
When will this fade out?
And when you eat your words
Will you still never learn?
Don't let words get around
