Feeling really so social,
I'll ride the bar car for a while.
The Chat Man is conversational,
But soon we'll both be so tired.
The Character catches my 'I say',
He's a long song on a summer night.
He shoots me down with his green gaze,
I'm in love with his lullaby.

See, all the girls waltz by,
That wish that they were with you.
I must say we're all quite surprised
That you're so good and so cool.
I see you looking at me.
Oh, how I hate to admit,
That I've been looking at you.
Come on and give me a kiss!
Come on!

I'm Sipping Straight and you're Pink Champagne
You're the man in white in a big glass house.
I like a mess in 1962,
And I just like you around.

See, all the girls waltz by,
That wish that they were with you.
I must say we're all quite surprised
That you're so good and so cool.
I see you looking at me.
Oh, how I hate to admit,
That I've been looking at you.
Come on and give me a kiss!
Come on!

I'm Sipping Straight and you're Pink Champagne.

See, all the girls waltz by,
That wish that they were with you.
I must say we're all quite surprised
That you're so good and so cool.
I see you looking at me.
Oh, how I hate to admit,

That I've been looking at you.
Come on and give me a kiss!
Come on and give me a kiss!
Come on and give me a kiss!
Come on and give me a kiss!
Come on!
