I wake up to my problems
That never go away
I try and stay content
With keeping my life at bay

I question all the answers
Another day goes by
I watch as the world spins
Another day goes by
I seem to be going nowhere
Another day goes by
Another day
Another day goes by

I need to ask some questions
I need a straight reply
It's hard to make decisions
When all you have is lies

I question all the answers
Another day goes by
I watch as the world spins
Another day goes by
I seem to be going nowhere
Another day goes by
Another day
Another day goes by

I'm fu*king going nowhere
I live my life on trial
Days seems so pointless
I live in such denial
Denial
Denial

Another day goes by

I question all the answers
Another day goes by
I watch as the world spins
Another day goes by

I seem to be going nowhere
Another day goes by
Another day
Another day goes by
